Frontend Assignment set

Module : 1

Theory Exercise :-

Q.1 What is a HTTP?

Ans : Hypertext Transfer Protocol, HTTP is Useful for transfer data from internet communication to web browser or web server, and also use to transfer various type of DATA Including HTML Pages, Image, Video, and many other files.

Q.2 What is a Browsers? How they works?

Ans : Web browser is one kind of software application who allow user to access and view information on the world wide web.

And they works – 1st request – when user enters URL link and click on the link then the browser send a request to the web server to define users required information.

Q.3 What is Domain Name ?

Domain is one kind of web address who makes easy to open particular website for example : " https://www.flipkart.com/ "

Q.4 What is Hosting ?

Hosting is basically context of the internet . hosting stores websites files on server.